China Development Forum

The LSE SU China Development Forum, co-organised by the LSE SU China Development Society and the LSE Asia Research Centre, was first founded in 2009. Since then, the Forum has grown phenomenally to become the largest China-themed forum in Europe, with an audience of nearly 400. Nine years in a row, we have successfully hosted numerous outstanding speakers and aspiring future leaders.

Speakers from diverse backgrounds and with contrasting views contended on various subjects in the eight debate-driven discussion
